

FORTHCOMING IASE CONFERENCES

IASE 2012 ROUNDTABLE TECHNOLOGY IN STATISTICS EDUCATION: VIRTUALITIES AND REALITIES Cebu City, Philippines, July 2–6, 2012

The IASE 2012 Roundtable Conference will be held in Cebu City in the Philippines, and will bring together a group of experts, scholars, practitioners, and researchers, representing as many different countries as possible, to discuss views and approaches concerning the role of technology in statistics education. The Conference will provide opportunities for developing better mutual understanding of common problems and for making recommendations concerning the statistics curriculum. A main outcome of the Roundtable will be a monograph containing a set of high-standard reviewed papers, which have been prepared for, and discussed during, the conference.

OTHER FORTHCOMING CONFERENCES

2012 JOINT MATHEMATICS MEETINGS Hynes Convention Center, Boston, Massachusetts, USA, January 4–7, 2012

The Joint Mathematics Meetings comes to New England! The Mathematical Association of America (MAA) and the American Mathematical Society (AMS) are making plans for the next Joint Mathematics Meetings to be held in Boston, known not only for its rich history but also for its central location to many colleges and universities. This will be the 95th annual winter meeting of MAA and the 118th annual meeting of AMS. They will again host sessions by the Association for Symbolic Logic, the Association for Women in Mathematics, the National Association for Mathematicians, and the Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics. Attendance is expected to reach record-breaking numbers so mark your calendars!
